This Race Rocks!

Wellstone's Dallas White Rock Marathon was a huge success. Over 11,500 participants, more than 2,000 volunteers, a total of 162,440 miles run and most importantly thousands of dollars raised for those who truly need it, the children at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital. Like Scottish Rite's commitment to helping children live happier, healthier, stronger lives, Wellstone builds communities devoted to the same principles. As a matter of fact, Cooper Life™, Wellstone's latest development, is the world's first health and fitness community. So, here's to healthy living and an even more successful marathon in 2007!

Dear Runners

Record numbers and fast times at the Rock! A record number of participants and several race records were set this year, despite the efforts of Mother Nature. Course records were set by Moses Kororia (2:12.04) and Svetlana Ponomarenko (2:29.55) in the full marathon, and in the half marathon by Fasil Bizuneh (1:02.59), who beat Valenite Orare by a stride at the finish line. Rosemary Koskei ran a great race, winning the women's half marathon with a time of 1:14.19.

Being able to enhance the course, bring in top level runners, and provide more for the runners and spectators is a goal we have set to make Wellstone's Dallas White Rock Marathon a top level race. The fast times garner international press, and the elites and their agents go home and tell their peers what a great city and race we have. It is very impressive to see the citizens of Dallas supporting the race, not only through the volunteers working throughout the week, but also by residents and spectators who line the course on race day. Many runners contact us after the race saying they were amazed by and appreciate the Texas hospitality provided to them. You can read some of their comments along the bottom of these pages.

For those who appreciate statistics, we had a total of 11,475 registered runners, with 3,516 in the marathon, 5,602 in the half, and a total of 2,357 relay runners. Weather played a part in this year's race, with a strong wind out of the north at the start, and rain moving into the area approximately 3 hours into the marathon. It was the first time in more than 5 years that we had less than ideal weather on race day.

Wellstone's involvement as our Title Sponsor elevates the Dallas White Rock Marathon to a new level, one that benefits the runners and our beneficiary, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children. Wellstone is a great partner, and a good fit: Wellstone builds lifestyle communities for active people, and who's more active than marathon runners? Wellstone also shares similar beliefs with marathon runners – planning for the long term, working hard to meet their goals, and promoting a healthy and balanced lifestyle. Locally, Wellstone is building residences at the Craig Ranch development in McKinney in conjunction with the new Cooper Aerobics Clinic and a new TPC golf course.

Now our race is bigger and better than ever! Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, we now have full time staff to plan and build The Rock year-round. And as always, our backbone is the steady and heroic legion of volunteers who love this race. Plans are well underway for the 2007 running of Wellstone's Dallas White Rock Marathon on Sunday, December 9!

See you at the Start Line!

Dear Runners

My name is Kelsey Andrews, and I have been a patient at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children (TSRHC) for more than 11 years. This year, I served as the Junior Race Director for the 2006 Wellstone's Dallas White Rock Marathon presented by AT&T. As Junior Race Director, I was happy to represent the hospital and help participants and sponsors understand how TSRHC benefits from the support of events like the marathon.

On behalf of all of the other kids treated at the hospital each year, I would like to thank you for your participation in the marathon. Your support, whether you are a runner, volunteer, sponsor or spectator, helps TSRHC fulfill the dreams of other children like me.

Since I was a baby, I have worn a prosthesis on my right leg, and the care I have received from TSRHC has helped me achieve so many things, both physically and mentally. I am blessed to be a patient at TSRHC and to have the encouragement of so many friends of the hospital, like those of you who support the marathon.

Thank you very much,

Kelsey Andrews

Wellstone's Dallas White Rock Marathon 2006

Spirit Award

Dave Dozier Receives Spirit Award — Helping first-time marathoners train for their debut race and making friends

Periodically, The Rock recognizes a local running hero who inspires others to make a difference in their lives and their health through the sport of running. Such a person is Dave Dozier. For more than three decades, Dave has been a personality and force at White Rock Lake, mentoring and nurturing runners as they train for what he calls "something religious"– the marathon.

For Dave, "running is about people, not time." After all, he says, "The finish line will still be there when you get there." He started running in 1972 and by 1974, his good friend and mentor Uly Vlamides, had convinced him he could run all the way around White Rock Lake. He ran his first White Rock Marathon in 1980, taking inspiration from his friends Uly, Irving Adelstein and Tal Morrison. Today he prides himself on returning that favor by having mentored, trained and accompanied more than 200 first-time marathoners in their debut 26.2.

Dave is also a daily fixture at White Rock Lake, running with groups of friends. As he loops the lake, his familiar calls of "Hey!" and friendly banter with passers-by make everyone who shares the lake his friend.

"I'm not a great runner, but I am a consistent runner. Running is an essential part of my life – running means everything to me. It's an event, and I'm happy to be able to share it and build the special relationships that develop when you spend time around White Rock Lake. Each day is different and I'm going to play with everyone I see. That's everything to me."

Race Director Marcus Grunewald (left) caught up with Dave after a Saturday run to present him a commemorative plaque honoring his dedication to helping others enjoy running and inspiring them to "Run the Rock".

year to run the full marathon. I love being back in Texas and having my family support for pre and post race. I'll be back

Victory Award for Excellence

Victory Award for Excellence

Jeff Galloway, renowned runner and running author, was awarded Wellstone's 2006 Dallas White Rock Marathon Victory Award for Excellence on the eve of the 37th running of The Rock. Galloway's name is synonymous with excellence in running and helping countless others to enjoy the life changing benefits of the sport.

The Award for Excellence honors members of the running community for demonstrating the value of physical fitness and having a positive effect on health and fitness through outstanding effort, determination, commitment and courage. By definition, Jeff Galloway is the embodiment of the Award for Excellence.

His running career spans nearly 50 years, beginning in high school, when Jeff was the North Carolina state champion in the 2-mile. He attended Wesleyan University and was All-American in cross-country and track. After three years in the U.S. Navy, he received a master's degree from Florida State University.

In Florida, Jeff trained with Frank Shorter (Award for Excellence recipient in 1994) and Jack Bacheler. All three made the 1972 Olympic team. In 1973 Jeff set an American record in the 10-mile and represented the U.S. as a member of the U.S. National Track and Field team in Europe, Russia and Africa.

In the mid-'70s he began to follow a training program that emphasized more rest and less weekly mileage, coupled with a long run every other week and at age 35 ran the Houston-Tenneco Marathon in 2: 16.

He published Galloway's Book on Running in 1984. In it, he showed how the same training principles used by elite runners apply to runners of all levels, explained his secrets for running better, and his revolutionary ideas on stress and rest. Jeff inspired beginners to get started sensibly and provided unique training charts for 5k and10K races, and half-marathons. This is state-of-the-art running information from one of the world's great runners and teachers.

His book is known among runners as the finest work published on the art and science of running. Simply put, Jeff Galloway is a world-class runner who decided that his mission in life was to teach others how to run, and in so doing, make fitness a permanent part of their lives. His website, www.jeffgalloway.com, is a resource to runners all over the world.

Rock. As I reflect back on the years of The Rock, it has always been getting better. This year with the big screens at the starting line along with our first names on the race number made it a touch better. It is nice to be noticed and encouraged

R.I.P. Say farewell to the house suburbia built. A new home is taking shape in the heart of Dallas, Texas, called Victory Park. Brightening the world's landscape with innovation and originality. Such as the first ever W Hotel with residences. Featuring the lone Craft restaurant outside Manhattan and one of only two Ghostbar® lounges outside Las Vegas. Plus the unmatched utopia of Bliss Spa®. Where a dream team can welcome you back to the invigorating new comforts of home. Or take Victory Tower, home of The Residences at Mandarin Oriental, Dallas. Designed by world-renowned architects Kohn Pedersen Fox and standing 43 stories high, it will be the new icon in the Dallas skyline.

There's also a residential tower built by the biggest name in design today: Philippe Starck. Yet Victory Park is more than architectural stunners like The House, W Dallas and Mandarin Oriental, Dallas. It's residents, having access to everything. Like fashion boutiques and critically acclaimed restaurants rarely found outside Los Angeles or New York. It's a meticulously groomed one-acre urban park. And an outdoor plaza featuring the world's largest digital screens showcasing high-definition art, fashion shows, concerts, and more. Suffice it to say, this is living. For more information, please contact us at 214.303.3535 or visit our website at victorypark.com.

Building lives one brick at a time.

Building a home is one thing. Building a home that helps children and adults build stronger, happier, healthier lives is another. That's a commitment Wellstone takes very seriously. That commitment was the reason we became the title sponsor for the Wellstone White Rock Marathon. Because the money that's raised goes to Texas Scottish Rite Hospital to help children in need build stronger, healthier, happier lives.

Wellstone applies that same commitment to the homes we build. And our latest development, Cooper Life™ at Craig Ranch will be the world's first health and fitness community. It's a community dedicated to helping people reach and maintain optimum health right outside their doorstep. We congratulate the winners of the Marathon and the many volunteers, civic leaders, and sponsors that made this event such a success.

A success all of us will continue to build on.
